Department of Health Services

Inviting Resumes for:

DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF DIVERSION AND RE-ENTRY
(UNCLASSIFIED)

ANNUAL SALARY: $175,228 - $265,222 (Range R19)

FILING PERIOD: November 16, 2015 – Until the position is filled

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SERVICES

The Department of Health Services (DHS) is the second largest health system in the nation. DHS serves the health care needs of millions of residents and encompasses hospital and outpatient care, programs and clinics, Emergency Medical Services (EMS) and rehabilitation services. DHS operates four hospitals: LAC+USC Healthcare Network, Harbor-UCLA Medical Center, Olive View-UCLA Medical Center, and Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center. The Department also operates two multi-disciplinary ambulatory care centers – High Desert Health System in the Antelope Valley, Martin Luther King, Jr., six comprehensive health centers, and numerous health clinics. DHS leads the County's effort to provide personal health services to the residents of Los Angeles County, of which approximately 2 million are uninsured. The Department's services are critical for the medically indigent, working poor, and those who are without access to other health care. In addition, services are critical to the maintenance of the County's trauma care network. Through university affiliations, County hospitals also conduct postgraduate medical education for interns, residents and fellows to train the physician workforce for tomorrow. The current departmental budget is approximately $4.2 billion and includes funding for approximately 21,577 positions.

POSITION OVERVIEW

This director is unclassified (at-will) and reports directly to the Deputy Director of Community Health and Integrated Programs in the Department of Health Services. The position is responsible for directing and overseeing the County's jail diversion efforts, which are dedicated to preventing or reducing the needless incarceration of individuals with mental illness and/or substance use disorders. The position has full responsibility for guiding the strategic, operational, and administrative alignment of diversion activities and decisions with the goal of reducing the incarceration and recidivism of mentally ill and/or severely addicted residents of Los Angeles County.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES

- Oversees the planning, development and implementation of jail diversion projects and programs designed to offer health, mental health, and law enforcement personnel countywide a means to redirect County residents with mental illness and/or substance use disorders away from the criminal justice systems to recovery-based community treatment and services, and to promote an end cycles of repeated incarceration.
- Oversees and coordinates through subordinate programs managers the creation and enhancement of programs that seek to continually improve the physical and mental health and recovery of justice-involved residents of the County.
- Establishes and fosters partnerships between the Office of Diversion and the departments of Health Services, Public Health, and Mental Health, the District Attorney's Office, Public Defender, the Sheriff Department and other law enforcement agencies throughout the County, and various community partners with the goal of implementing initiatives to increase diversion opportunities for justice-involved residents of the County.
- Oversees the selection and development of Information Technology-related systems and platforms used to manage and document diversion-related efforts and resources, and the safety and security of the clients utilizing diversion resources.
- Oversees and coordinates the analysis of legislation and policies related to and impacting diversion efforts at the County, State, and Federal levels, and makes recommendations for the development and implementation of new policies designed to continually improve diversion efforts of the County of Los Angeles.
- Monitors and tracks diversion services provided by the County and its partners and performs cost-benefit analysis; prepares reports at the request of the Board of Supervisors and Chief Executive Officer for the purpose of aiding in the planning and development of training for County staff and community partners.
- Ensures diversion data is appropriately documented and disseminated to the various departments involved in diversion efforts, community stakeholders and partners, and the public.

The preceding statements reflect the general duties and responsibilities of the position, and are not considered a detailed description of all work requirements that may be inherent in the job or required for the effective discharge of the position's responsibilities.
